

THE MESSENGER

OF ST. PETER'S PARISH, OAKLAND, CA

November, 2021

The Rev. Michael Mautner, Rector

Blessing Stations of the Cross

On Saturday, September 25th, a special blessing ceremony was held at St. Peter's. When Trinity Church, Hayward, was merged into St. Peter's Parish, St. Peter's "inherited" a set of sculpted metal Stations of the Cross. Over time it was agreed that the metal Stations should be mounted in the Nave in memory of Mary Weldy's husband Bill. The metal Stations are mounted just below the Stations donated by Nancy Gan in memory of her husband George.

To commemorate the metal Stations, a plaque was mounted on the wooden beam next to the first Station.

Mary Weldy and her sons, William and Douglas, came on September 25th to witness Fr. Mautner's blessing of the metal Stations. Unfortunately it was not safe to try to take Mary in her wheelchair up the steps to enter the church. So Fr. Mautner brought some of the metal Stations on to the patio so that Mary and her sons could participate in the blessing of the Stations. Afterwards Fr. Mautner and Douglas returned the Stations to the Nave and Fr. Mautner blessed the remaining Stations in the Nave as well.

St. Peter's is now doubly blessed with very memorable Stations of the Cross! Ω
