For The Good Neighbor

On Sunday, September 5th, a delegation from St. Peter's visited John Smith, the Irish man who so generously repaired several broken places in the church sidewalk on Lawton Avenue.

It was a remarkably charitable endeavor by John who would take no money or other reward at the time.

John did accept the gift of a lemon bundt cake and Irish soda bread baked by Debbie Stanford (at left in photo) and a jar of plum jam made by Patsy Ronat (at right in photo).

After being told that there is always birthday cake at St. Peter's at coffee hour on the first Sunday of every month, John remarked that he might be coming to St. Peter's on the first Sunday in October. Ω
